CRITERIA FOR DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

All persons in the position to control the content of an education activity are required to disclose all relevant financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months with any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on patients. Failure or refusal to disclose relevant financial relationships will disqualify the participant from involvement in the CME activity. Disclosure of financial relationships includes both yourself and your spouse/domestic partner.

Identified conflicts of interest will be resolved prior to an educational activity being delivered to learners through one of the following mechanisms 1) altering the financial relationship with the commercial interest, 2) altering the individual's control over CME content about the products or services of the commercial interest, and/or 3) validating the activity content through independent peer review.

Persons in the control of, or responsible for, the development management, or presentation of the CME activity are also required to disclose any discussions of off label/unapproved uses of drugs or devices.

Learners will be asked to evaluate whether there is bias in the planning or presentation of the activity.
