

Dear Representative,

What's New in Gastroenterology 2020 will be held on Saturday, February 15, 2020. This one-day CME live activity will take place at the UT Southwestern Medical Center, Dallas, Texas and is sponsored by UT Southwestern Department of Digestive and Liver Diseases, and the Office of Continuing Medical Education at UT Southwestern Medical Center.

This program is designed to provide attendees current information on how to recognize symptoms and use current data to establish diagnosis and formulate the appropriate treatment plans for the management of gastrointestinal diseases. Several topics will be presented at a live, one day symposium through lectures and question and answer sessions by experts in the field of gastroenterology.

This course is designed for gastroenterologists, GI surgeons, internists, family practice physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and nurses with an interest in gastroenterology and hepatology.

Topics include:

- Therapeutic Targets and Endpoints in IBD Care
- Drug induced Colitis
- Complicated Cases in IBD- panel / case- based discussion
- Functional diarrhea – Causes and Management
- Pharmacological therapies in GI motility Disorders
- Diet and GI disorders
- Surveillance and Management of Pancreatic Cysts.
- Preventing Cancer in Barrett's Esophagus
- Controversies in Colon Cancer Screening
- Genetics and cancer prevention – case-based
- New Treatments for GI Bleeding
- Weight loss therapies – Surgical vs. Endoscopic Treatment

We are asking for your support of this program with an exhibit fee in the amount of $1500.00

Benefits of Exhibiting

Meet one-on-one to discuss your products and services with medical professionals who will attend this meeting. Further benefits of exhibiting at the What's New in Gastroenterology 2020 includes:

- Exposure to an estimated 120-130 attendees. Approximately 50% of the attendees are physicians
- Ample intermissions between morning and afternoon sessions allow time for attendees to visit your exhibit
- Breakfast and coffee breaks are held in the exhibit area during session intermissions to help increase traffic flow
- Build visibility for your company in a competitive marketplace
- Expand your prospective place and strengthen existing customer relationships

We look forward to your support and participation.
