

Dear Representative,

The Cerebrovascular Diseases and Stroke Symposium (RP2612B) will be held on Saturday, December 12, 2026. This continuing education activity will take place in-person at the UT Southwestern Medical Center T. Boone Biomedical Education Auditorium (NG3.112), 6001 Forest Park Road, in Dallas, Texas and is sponsored by UT Southwestern Department of Neurology and the UT Southwestern Office of Continuing Education.

Description and Target Audience

The Cerebrovascular Diseases and Stroke Symposium is a full-day, live CME activity designed for cerebrovascular diseases and neurosciences professionals (physicians, advance practice providers, nurses, physical therapists, occupational therapists, and speech therapists) and will explore the latest advances and current trends in the pathophysiology, management and treatment of cerebrovascular diseases and stroke. Case studies, didactic presentations, and panel discussions will explore the most current information and address clinical practice challenges for advancing proper diagnosis and treatment modalities across the spectrum of cerebrovascular diseases and stroke.

Learning Objectives include:

- Identify key clinical features of cerebrovascular diseases and stroke to improve diagnosis and risk stratification
- Interpret and integrate updated guidelines into clinical practice to improve patient outcomes
- Optimize antithrombotic and anticoagulation strategies in patients with stroke and cerebrovascular disease.
- Formulate individualized management approaches for patients with overlapping cerebrovascular and systemic conditions
- Demonstrate improved decision making in complex stroke cases through case based application of emerging concepts and technologies
- Identify key ethical challenges in cerebrovascular and stroke care, including disparities in access, resource limitations, and equity of treatment

Benefits of Exhibiting

Meet one-on-one to discuss your products and services with medical professionals who will attend this meeting. Further benefits of exhibiting at the Cerebrovascular Diseases and Stroke Symposium include:

- Exposure to approximately 150 attendees; approximately 50% of the attendees are physicians
- Ample intermissions between morning and afternoon sessions allow time for attendees to visit your exhibit
- Build visibility for your company in a competitive marketplace
- Expand your prospective place and strengthen existing customer relationships

We look forward to your support and participation.

Regards,

Office of Continuing Education
