

UTSouthwestern

Medical Center

FAMILY MEDICINE GRAND ROUNDS

E-Cigarettes: Blessing or Curse

Zubair Siddiqui, MD

FREE CME Dinner Program

Tuesday August 23, 2016

6:30 PM– 8:00 PM

William P. Clements University Hospital Education Center (2nd floor)
6201 Harry Hines Blvd, Dallas, TX 75390

Program Directors:

Tasaduq Mir, MD, FAAFP, Assistant Professor
Zaiba Jetpuri, DO, MBA, FAAFP Assistant Professor

Overview: This activity provides an opportunity to review and present what is relevant to primary care about up to date information applicable to day-to-day practice. The discussion will include various forms of e-cigarettes, toxins to be aware of, and epidemiologic concerns. It will also touch on utility of this tool in smoking cessation.

Who should attend? Residents in training, fellows, medical students and other interested health care professionals at UTSW and Community primary care.

More information is available at <https://cme.utsouthwestern.edu/familymedicine/>
RSVP directly at FMGrandRounds@utsouthwestern.edu

UT Southwestern Family Medicine Grand Rounds provide an updated scientific knowledge foundation which will enhance diagnosis and treatment in the care of our patients.

This program is jointly provided by the UT Southwestern Department of Family & Community Medicine and Office of Public Education and Continuing Medical Education.

Accreditation: The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center designates this live activity for a AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Application for CME credit has been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians. Determination of credit is pending. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.